

1850 U.S. Lynns, Etc. Born in England or Wales

Spellings Found: Lin, Lind, Line, Linn, Linne, Lynd, Lyne, and Lynn

Notes:

1. Geographical abbreviations include two-letter State abbreviations and two- or three-letter country abbreviations (ENG for England, WAL for Wales, US for United States).
2. States are listed alphabetically (i.e., as they would be written out rather than abbreviated).
3. Within residence groupings, individuals are then listed in birth order (i.e., earliest to latest), except in some instances where a son born in Ireland is listed immediately following his father and other, older English-born men in the same location are listed following the son.
4. Sons not born in England or Wales have been placed in a separate column, and their birthplaces are listed in the "Note" column.
5. Also in the "Note" column are observations concerning either possible relationships or persons of a different surname with whom a child or very young man was living. This is important because a child might be living with grandparents or with a mother and stepfather. In the latter case, the head of household and his wife of course would bear a different surname than the child.
6. Every other household on this chart is shaded.
7. Regrettably, a number of 1850 Pennsylvania census takers failed to list birthplaces.
8. Some individuals on this chart may not be easily found when searching the census at a certain website because the indexer for that site misread the capital letter "L" as an "S". The error becomes clear when one such name is compared, on the actual census image, to the Ls and Ss in obvious names such as "Lucy" and "Smith" appearing nearby. Anyone having trouble finding a specific person on this chart in the census should search for the name beginning with "S".
